SOMETHING
OLD

He who has the Order of Merlin is among the Elders. Kindly consenting to use his many years of experience as a Magician

Dr. John Mc Cullough Smith is our Thursday's Program. John is heading up an evening of fun, indeed a headliner. (All others are kindly requested to bring a trick).

Note Bene Our meeting place this Thursday May 2 is new. It will be held at The Little Barn, 8500 S. University Avenue. Come at 7:00 and browse around in "The World of Magic". Business Session begins at 7:30 p.m.

SOMETHING BORROWED

Again Mrs. Virginia Bird has been borrowed to type and cut this Newsletter. She kindly consented to interrupt her enjoyment of the most scenic, restful area in North Central Arkansas. The chamber of Commerce here has not been exaggerating one bit ! Note the post mark. This is the first Magic Newsletter with Hardy, Arkansas (population 312) post mark.

In Sunday's Ark. Gazette we were shocked at discovering the obituary of our faithful and loyal member L. D. Boyer. We cherish the memories of his participation in our magic meetings and L.D.'s dedication to our Ring having served as President and currently holding position of Treasurer. We are most grateful that L. D.'s improved health permitted him to attend the last two meetings and especially the Karrell Fox Lecture which he enjoyed immensely. This is a memory of L. D. we shall hold dear - "His love and excitement about the little pocket tricks".

BLUE
(SAD)

- TID BITS -

Last meeting gave us an exuberant visitor - a Magician of no small experience but widely traveled. We are speaking of Hal Lane now residing at Mt. Petit Jean a la Al Hout, Hal actually performed before the Queen of England and other royalty. Thrilling! Ask him about it. Other guests:

Bob Spray

Leo Olberts

Pat Edelmann

We are happy to have such interested guests - more happy to have such as members.
