

Merry Christmas I.B.M. Ring 29!

Ring 29's regular December meeting is this Thursday, the 1st, at Mr. Magic 6:30pm. Bring some holiday magic to share. Refreshments will be provided.

* Get ready for the Christmas party in January. The date is tentatively set for Saturday, January 14, 2006. There is a great line up of magical performers and as always, there will be a great meal provided by Ring 29 President Don's mother and her staff at Salem church. Cost will be $7.00 a person to pay for the meal. Children 6 years and under may eat free. Make plans to attend. There will be four $25 gift certificate drawings to Mr. Magic for Ring 29 members. You must be present to win. A map to the church and other information will be provided in the next newsletter.

* Begin pulling your old magic boxes out of the attic. Dust them off and bring them to the auction on February 2. The Meeting will be held at Baptist Hospital's Sheffield Auditorium. More information will be given at a later date.

Member News:

* Jon Bucher was asked to perform at the Optimist Club in Searcy in October. Following his performance, he was introduced as Searcy's Optimist Citizen of the Year for 2005. Be sure to congratulate him on this great honor.

* Jon Bucher and Tyler Vodehnal will be performing walk around magic at the Southside High School Madrigal Feast in Batesville, Arkansas on Dec. 9th and 10th.

* The Master of Illusion performed four family magic shows at the Easy Street Cabaret during the month of November. The show featured Arkansas's youngest female magician, McKensie Carlon and her much older dad, Paul Carlon, who also directed the show and was one of the performers.
